I. Information Disclosure Statement

1. It is unclear how LEKHOLM (US 4,840,186 A), which teaches an Implantable multi-pole coaxial lead, is relevant to the claimed invention.

II. Claim Objections

1. Claim 5 is objected to because the numeral 44 is used to represent the “plurality of sheaves” and “a final vertically mounted sheave.”
2. Claim 5-8 are objected to because they include reference characters which are not enclosed within parentheses. Reference characters corresponding to elements recited in the detailed description of the drawings and used in conjunction with the recitation of the same element or group of elements in the claims should be enclosed within parentheses so as to avoid confusion with other numbers or characters which may appear in the claims. See MPEP § 608.01(m).

III. Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation from the relevant paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 112:

(2) The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

1. Claim 6-7 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

1.1. Claim 6 and 7 recite the limitation “said sheave(s).” Parent claim 5 provides antecedent basis for “a plurality of sheaves” and “a final vertically mounted sheave.” Further references should be consistent with this language. E.g., -two of said plurality of sheaves-, -a first of said plurality of sheaves-, -a second of said plurality of sheaves-.

1.2. Claim 7 recites "a fifth said sheave vertically mounted." It is unclear whether this limitation refers to the already included "final vertically mounted sheave." If so, the element should be recited as, -said final vertically mounted sheave-.

IV. Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claim(s) 1-3 is/are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by GALBREATH (US 4,840,532 A).

1.1. With respect to claim 1, GALBREATH discloses a vehicle frame (21), hoist frame (75), lift cylinder (38), and extension frame (20).

1.2. With respect to claim 2, GALBREATH discloses a vehicle frame (21), hoist frame (75), lift cylinder (38), and extension frame (20).

1.3. With respect to claim 3, GALBREATH additionally discloses a cable (68)

V. Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

1. Claim(s) 4-8 is/are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over GALBREATH (US 4,840,532 A).

1.1. With respect to claim 4, GALBREATH teaches a cable anchor attached to the container. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to attach the cable anchor of GALBREATH to the extension frame in order to connect the extension frame to a cable for actuation.

1.2. With respect to claim 5, GALBREATH additionally teaches the cable reeved around a plurality of sheaves (62)/(64), and vertical sheave (67).

1.3. With respect to claim 6, GALBREATH teaches one sheave on the hoist frame, two on the primary extension frame and two on the secondary extension frame. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the location of the sheaves of GALBREATH as necessary in order to obtain the desired mechanical advantage.

1.4. With respect to claim 7, GALBREATH teaches wrapping the cable around the sheaves at 90 or 180 degrees (Fig. 2). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify GALBREATH with the desired engagement circumference in order to obtain the desired traction or mechanical advantage.

1.5. With respect to claim 8, GALBREATH teaches a cylinder (81) on the main frame attached to the extension frame. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify GALBREATH with an additional cylinder in order to increase the amount of force produced to actuate the extension frame, thereby enabling manipulation of an increased load.
